Steam Through History

Celebrate an invention that changed the world on Wednesday, July 26th from 10:30am-7:00pm. Special event activities include:

- MUSEUM EXHIBIT DEBUTS! The Science of Steam has been made possible through a grant from Indiana Humanities in cooperation with the National Endowment for the Humanities and a sponsorship by Centier Bank.
- Steam-powered sternwheel vessel, the Norman J, outfitted with a calliope (demonstrated dockside all day)
- Additional steam-powered equipment: traction engine and G-scale model train.
- Rides on Steamer Dewey (purchase tickets online in advance)
- Free marionette puppet shows sponsored by The Legacy Foundation, complimentary museum gallery admission courtesy of Mees Insurance Agency, & live music on the museum porch
- Community boat parade past the museum at 6:30 pm Attn boat owners: advance registration required online (free)

Tuesday, July 25th Members Reception

Join us at 6pm for a ribbon cutting of our Science of Steam exhibit and preview the Norman J, a steam-powered sternwheel vessel outfitted with a calliope, which will be in town for our special event on Wednesday.

Admission is free for members, but RSVP is required in the Neon member portal or by calling 219-390-9423.
